

Applicant ID: 20051222

21 April 2020

Mr Axel Louis Pierre Ambert
5 Avenue Edith Cavell
Beaulieu Sur Mer
Provence Alpes Cote D'Azur
06310
France

Dear Axel

On behalf of the University of Kent, I am pleased to offer you a place on the programme of study shown below.

This offer is made subject to the University's terms and conditions of offer, which can be found on our applicant's website. You can also download a pdf version of the University's terms and conditions, our Admissions Policy and our general student regulations from KentVision. Please make sure you read these carefully as they contain important information about your rights and responsibilities as a student of the University and the basis on which we intend to deliver our service to you.

To view and accept your offer, ask us any questions, and to keep abreast of new developments, we recommend that you regularly log in to KentVision. Additionally you can find out more about studying at Kent, types of accommodation, scholarships and our graduate community by visiting our applicant's website. You will also shortly receive an information pack that incorporates Graduate Study at Kent, information about our accommodation and Funding for Graduate Study.

Our academic and research staff are some of the best in the country and our reputation for excellence is confirmed by our success in the most recent Research Excellence Framework (REF). More information is available at www.kent.ac.uk/research

We have a thriving intellectual community of students from 159 nationalities and staff, of which 40% come from outside the UK. Our dynamic and challenging academic environment is informed by our international perspective and collaborations with top-ranked universities around the world.

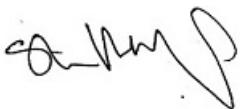

You can expect excellent supervision and support, as well as career skills development and training opportunities offered by the Graduate School. The Global Skills Award for taught Master's students will develop your global awareness and cross-disciplinary understanding, greatly enhancing your personal development and career prospects. Take look at our 'Think Kent' lectures which feature leading Kent academics talking about their research and the international impact of their work. See www.youtube.com/UniversityofKent

If you wish to apply for campus accommodation you are advised to make an online application as soon as possible via www.kent.ac.uk/accommodation.

Please contact us via KentVision if you have any queries regarding your application.

I congratulate you on this offer and look forward to welcoming you to the University of Kent.

Yours sincerely

Steven Holdcroft
Head of Recruitment and Admissions

Course title:	MSc Advanced Computer Science (Computational Intelligence)
School of study:	School of Computing
Faculty:	Faculty of Sciences
Location:	Canterbury campus
Registration dates:	19 September 2020 to 19 September 2021
Fee status:	EC resident paying home fees
Fee payable for the academic year:	GBP 8140 For students continuing on this programme, fees will increase year on year by no more than RPI + 3% in each academic year of study except where regulated. For more information: https://www.kent.ac.uk/finance-student/fees/index.html https://www.kent.ac.uk/courses/fees-and-funding

This offer is unconditional.

You can download a pdf version of the University's terms and conditions, our Admissions Policy and our general student regulations from KentVision. The University's general regulations can also be viewed online at www.kent.ac.uk/regulations

Complaints process: Complaints about admissions will normally be dealt with informally in the first instance and should be addressed to the Head of Recruitment and Admissions. Further information about the University's complaints procedure for applicants is available at: <https://www.kent.ac.uk/applicants/policies/appeals-and-complaints-policy-and-procedure.html>. The University's complaints procedure for use by students following enrolment can be found here: <https://www.kent.ac.uk/student-services/complaints/index.html>